Our Mission Statement

Working with you...

"Working with you to deliver a tailor made recruitment solution to meet all individual and corporate requirements"

Bridge is always seeking ways to improve our status and remain a leading force in this competitive industry and therefore we align our services with the code of practices relevant to our industries and business community. This allows Bridge to meet the service expectations for job seekers and employers alike.

Our Services

Never has it been more important to hire someone who not only matches the job and person specification but who can also identify with the same cultural aspirations, ethos and the corporate personality of your business. The effectiveness of this process is one not to be underestimated.

The cost of making the wrong decision will not only place financial strain on your business but it will also disrupt the positive energy with your existing and performing team. To enhance your business plan and growth strategy, it is essential to find a Business Partner whose track record is built on a strong foundation of market intelligence and recruitment and retention expertise.

We offer our Clients the following:

- Up to date knowledge of the performing professionals relevant to your industry
- High level and flexible methodologies tailored to meet the specific and individual requirements of our Clients
- Our services are governed by best practise
- Talent management expertise
- A fully managed recruitment process
- Rigorous CV Screening process - including eligibility, qualification and background checks
- On request – Post Placement Reviews

The introductions that we offer are based on the following:

- Permanent
- Temporary
- Contract

Testimonials

"We have worked in partnership with Bridge for a number of years, and have benefitted from their vast experience and professionalism."

"The philosophy at Bridge Recruitment fits perfectly with my requirements. They've managed an ideal blend of friendly enthusiasm with honest professionalism and it's provided me with excellent candidates for several years. Their preliminary research is thorough; their appraisal of an individual's credentials is accurate and their ability to identify a potential employee that will actually integrate successfully within our Company is refreshing! Bridge Recruitment are deservedly our preferred service partner in this sector."

"Over the past three or four years I have been working with Daniel at Bridge to recruit staff for our area of business. Over this time Daniel has gained a very good understanding of my requirements and the sort of people that I would like to work with. This, for me makes the process more efficient and narrows down the range of candidates I need to see saving me lots of time. All in all my experiences with Bridge recruitment has been very good to the point of me using Bridge as my first and often only point of contact."

"Bridge Recruitment has been a partner of Facilicom for over three years now. During that time the service received from our dedicated Account Manager has been excellent. Our relationship with them is a strong one. Before beginning a search for a candidate Bridge always take the time to fully understand our brief and our expected candidate profile. Bridge's approach to personally meeting all candidates prior to introducing them to us ensures that as well as the individual's capability has been assessed, their cultural fit with our organisation has been taken into account. Subsequently, all candidates we see are of good calibre. I'd thoroughly recommend them!"
